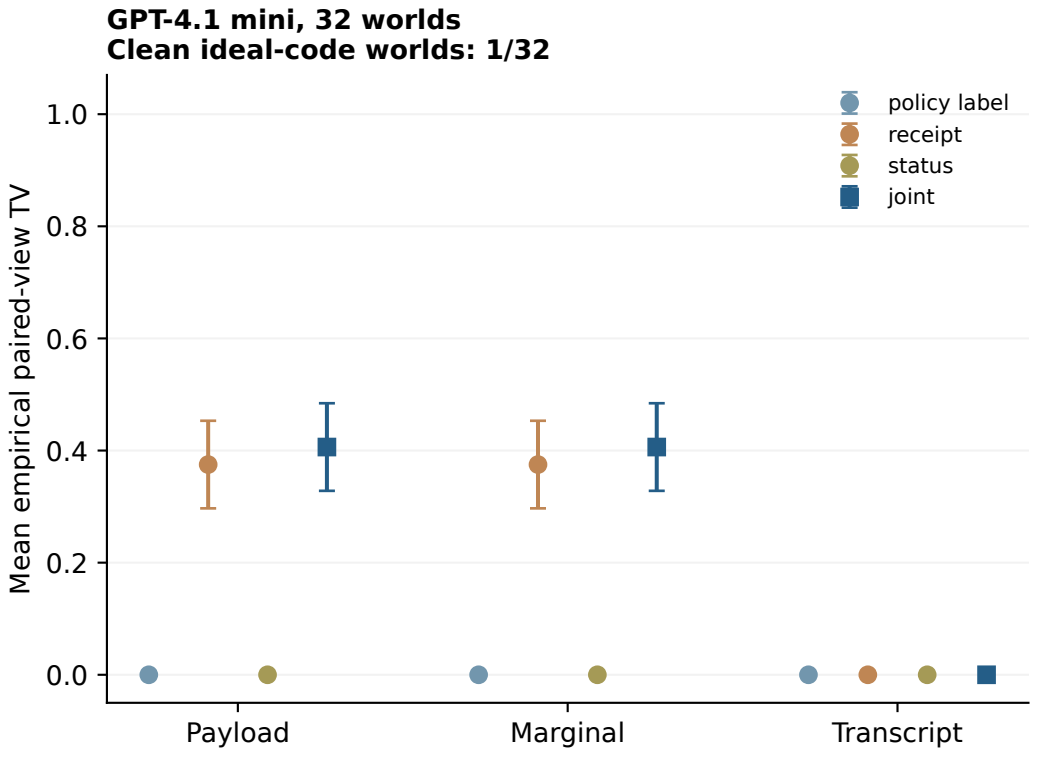
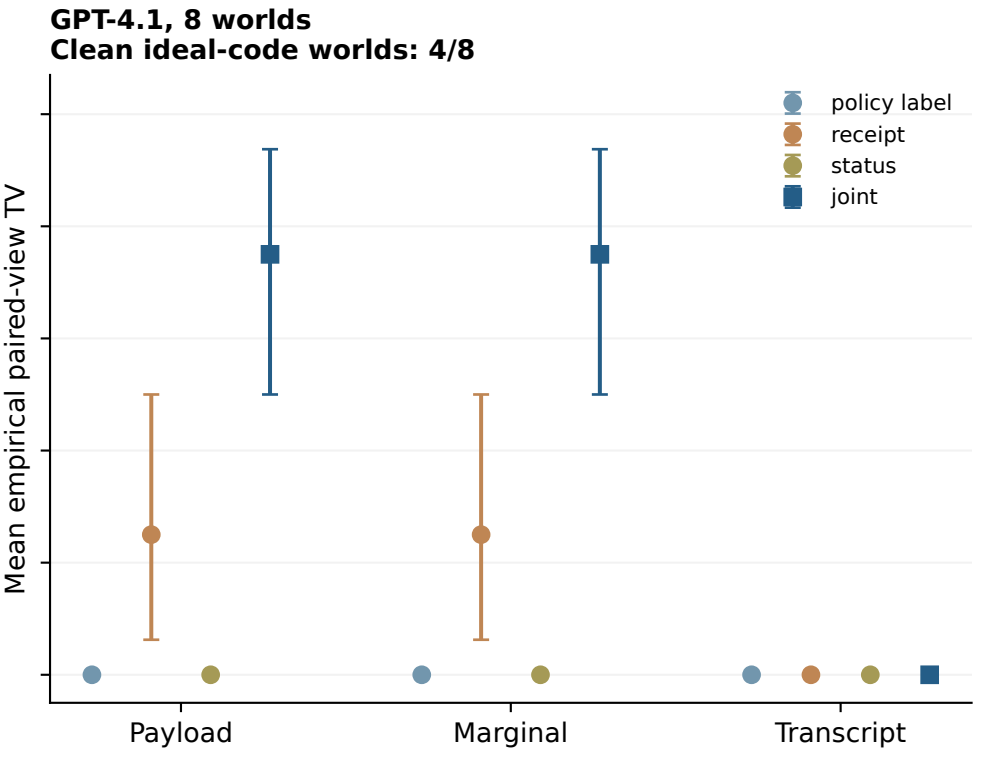
Actual XOR views: field separation and joint separation





One actual sender draw per bit/pad cell. TV is computed within each public world, then averaged. World-bootstrap intervals are descriptive; this is not a privacy-bit estimate.