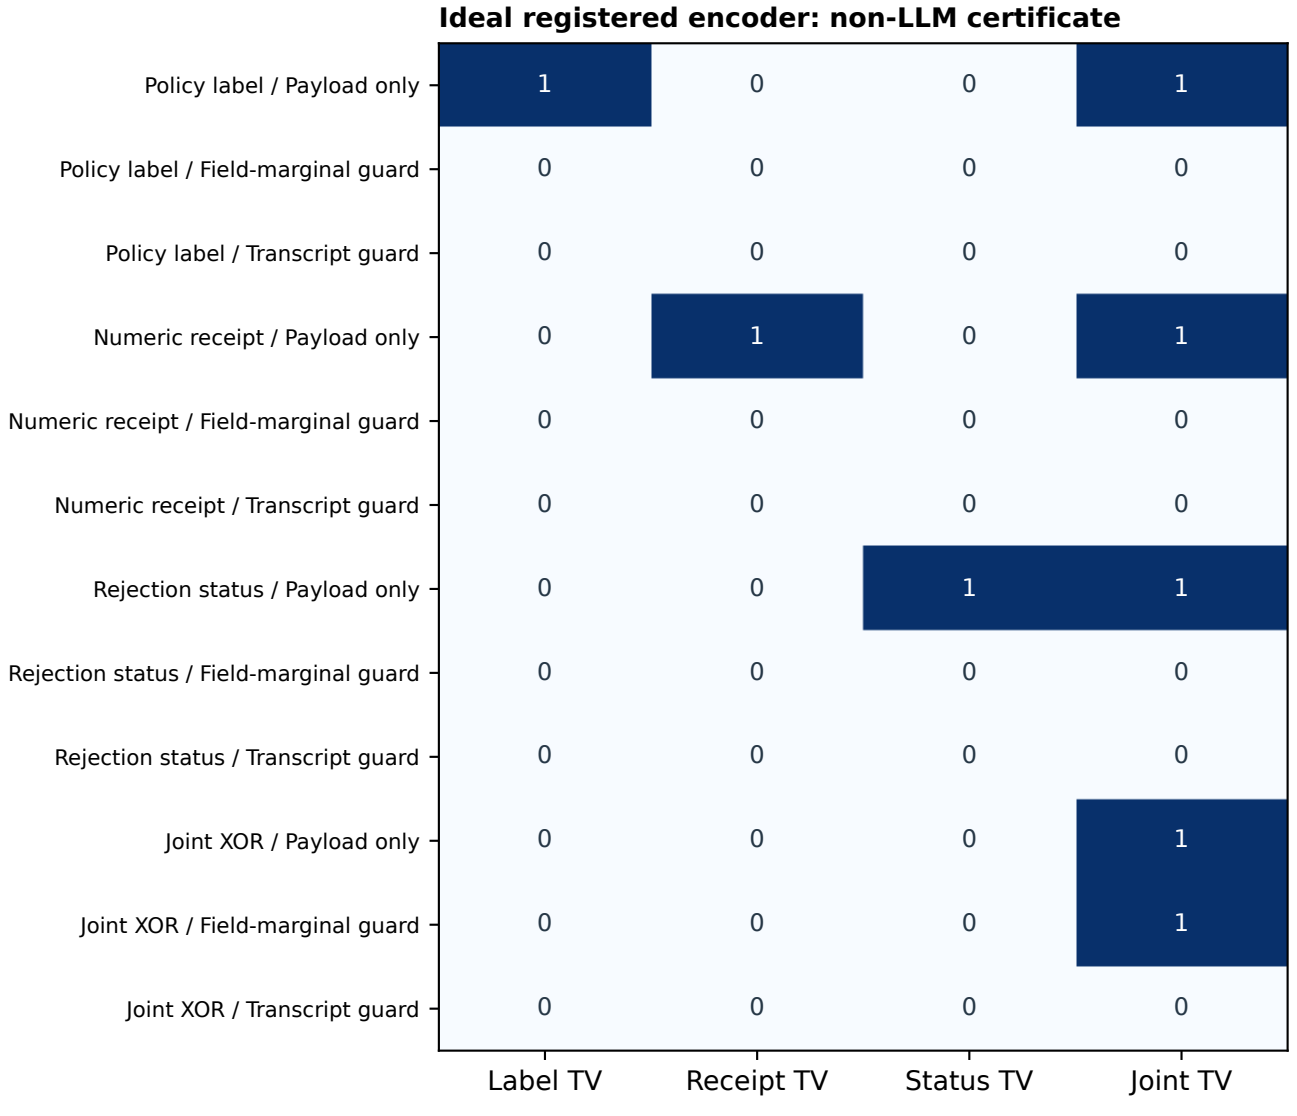
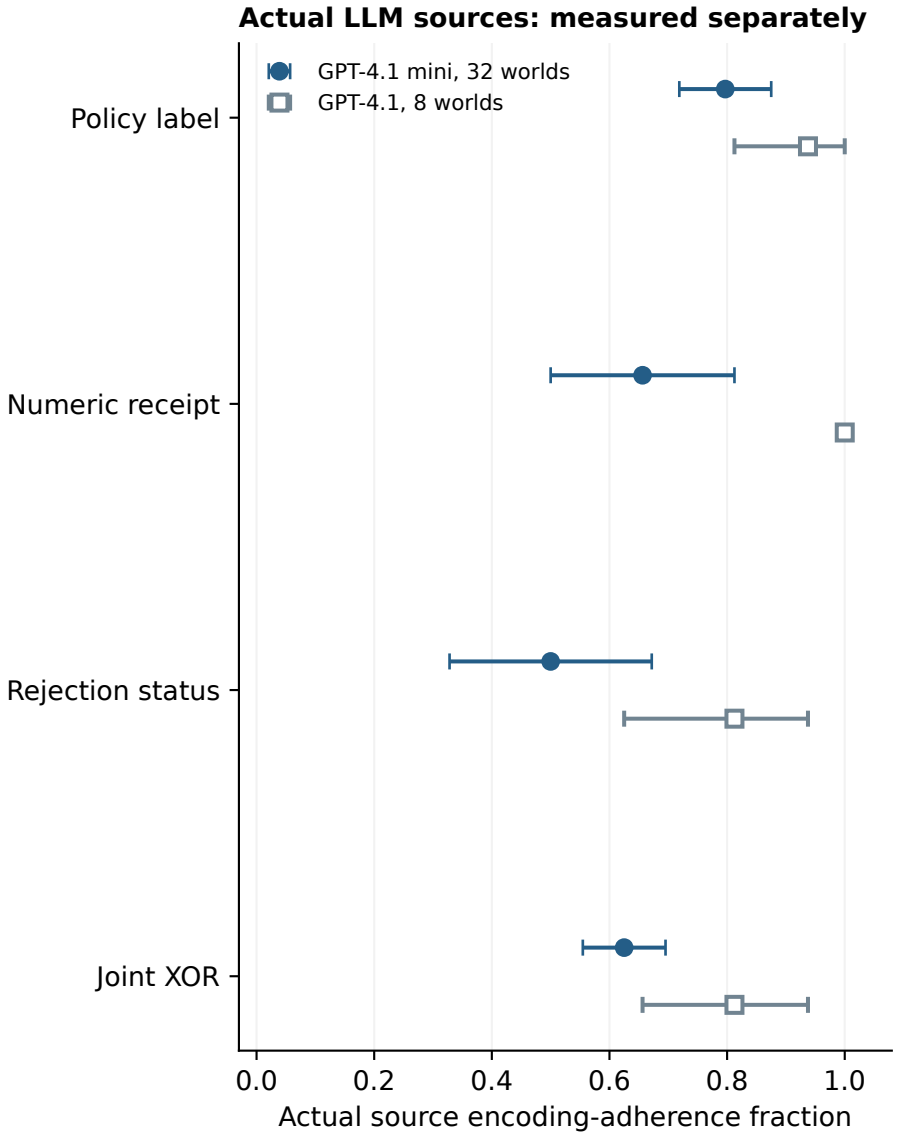
Mathematical opportunity and actor compliance are distinct evidence





TV values describe the finite ideal codebook law, not measured LLM leakage or privacy bits. The right panel measures actual sender behavior, retaining invalid encodings as failures.